

Our Vision

Our vision and ethos for all the children in our early years setting:

- To be happy, engaged and actively learning through play
- To be curious, creative and take risks by doing something new
- To experience a language rich environment
- To become confident and self motivated
- To develop independence and resilience