

Wise Owl's Curriculum

We support and encourage all of our children to aim for the following statements through active play, supportive practitioners and enabling environments.

Communication and Language

To communicate with others (non-verbal, verbal, Makaton signs, gestures, body language, eye contact and other approaches)

To take part in back and forth interactions with adults and other children throughout the day

To be able to listen to instructions

To be able to express themselves

To have developing understanding skills

Personal, Social and Emotional Development

To developing self-help skills and independence

To have a growing understanding of recognising and managing emotions

To develop a positive sense of self and have confidence

To experience and develop positive, strong, warm and supportive relationships with adults

To develop relationships with other children

To learn how to look after their bodies

Physical Development

To be active and have a healthy life

To develop independence skills

To play both indoors and outdoors

To have experiences that strengthen fine motor and gross motor skills